

STREAMLINED INCOME AND EMPLOYMENT VERIFICATIONS

The Work Number® from Equifax simplifies income and employment verifications, saving you time and helping your employees move forward faster.

A BETTER WAY TO VERIFY

When employees need to buy a home, get a loan, or apply for benefits, they're often asked to provide verification of employment (VOE) and income. Handling these requests manually can be time-consuming and may put sensitive information at risk.

ExponentHR offers an automated solution with The Work Number from Equifax. This service securely transfers employment and income data from your ExponentHR system to trusted verifiers, such as lenders, property managers, creditors, and government agencies. It streamlines the process for employees and reduces your manual workload—at no cost to you.

KEY BENEFITS

AUTOMATED SERVICE

Eliminate paperwork. The Work Number reduces your manual verification tasks.

REDUCED RISK

Automation minimizes the chance of errors or fraud compared to manual responses.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Faster, more accurate decisions from lenders and agencies can open up more opportunities for your employees.

FCRA COMPLIANCE

The Work Number is governed by the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), allowing employees to see who accessed their information and dispute inaccuracies.

PRIVACY AND SECURITY

Strong security standards protect employee data through encryption, physical controls, and user verification.

The Work Number delivers a better experience for both your organization and your employees by making verifications faster, safer, and easier.

No action is needed for you to take advantage of The Work Number verification service. This free service is included as part of ExponentHR's standard HR and payroll solution.
